

Regional Report – April 14, 2007
Wallowa, Union, Umatilla and Baker Counties
Julie M. Pridgen

Weston Middle School 5th graders participate in Arbor Day Art. Walla Walla Watershed Management's Bob Chicken came and spoke to the 5th grade art students about the significance of trees and creek beds to the community's water and asked the students to produce poster entries that represent this theme. After the judging the students will plant a tree provided by WWWM.

La Grande's "Arts for All" community sponsored art activity Weekend is coming up. The weekend of April 21, 2007 includes local volunteers and our Community Art Association is putting together an art show consisting of k-12 art works and some art activities. Rich Mcilmoil has contributed art from the middle school every year and find it to be a big success.

Pendleton Center for the Arts is hosting the 2007 Open Regional Exhibit from April 13th - May 11, 2007. Professionals and amateurs alike have come together to celebrate the act of creation. Support for the exhibit was provided by Wildhorse Foundation.